VOL. 29..... NO. 9,822

sed at the Post-Office at New York as second-class

Circulation Books Always Open.

YERIFIED.

ALL MONEYS PAID FOR ADVER-

TISINGJE UPON A PROPER TEST.

THE ABOVE STATEMENT IS NOT

SICK CHILDREN.

Thousands of children die in a great city Hise New York during the summer months through the want of a little timely medical attendance. Inving in crowded tenement houses, with parents too ignorant to understand the necessity of a doctor's aid or too poor to procure it, these little lives are sacrificed needlessly. Those who love them often feel the bereavement more keenly because of the fact that their children are all they have to prize in this world.

Nothing more nearly touches the heart than the sufferings of these little invalids, and THE EVENING WORLD is resolved to contribute its small share towards their relief from pain and their rescue from an early grave. To that end, we have secured the services of a capable, faithful and diligent physician, who, at the expense of THE EVEN-ING WORLD, will devote his entire time during the summer months to visiting the downtown tenement-houses, house by house, and giving his attention to all cases of the sick children of poor parents, where no other doctor is in attendance.

Our contribution to this work of humanity is small, but if one single little life is saved, if only one little sufferer is freed from pain, we shall have our reward.

DOWN WITH KNOW-NOTHINGIBM! Congress is about to make an inquiry into violations of the Foreign Contract Labor law. That is right. We have abolished human servitude, thank heaven! in this country. Let us see to it that no practical slavery is orced upon us by the importation of human beings who are practically sold to servitude by greedy speculators before they leave the shores of their native lands. We want no imported contract labor-only another species of slavery-to come into competition with our free labor, no matter whether the importation is from Italy, China or any other country.

But while we thus jealously guard our glorious principles of freedom for all men of all colors, and stoutly defend the interests of our own workingmen, let us frown down all attempts of the bigot and the crank to establish a new Know-Nothingism in this Republic; to reverse our policy of welcome to the oppressed of all nations; to extend the term of naturalization to twenty-one years, and to repudh te and reverse a system of immigration under which we have grown to be one of the most powerful and most prosperous nations in the world.

DRAW THE LINE.

Boston's production of JOHN LAWBENCE SULLIVAN has given a boom to prize-fighters such as this country never before witnessed. Scarcely a day passes without some encounter in the ring to show what a savage, brutal, ruffianly thing the "manly art of self defense" can be made. Besides this, the glory of the Hub has induced the cultivation of the prize-fighters' acquirements by Stock Exchanges, Produce Exchanges and the young men of society, so that a "Markiss o' Queensberry " knock out on the floor of an Exchange or in a private parlor has become by no means a rare event. The furor has cultivated a promising breed of Fred Mays in this city and elsewhere.

But the line must be drawn somewhere, The limit has surely been passed when a regular " mill " for $1,000 a side is arranged between two women in Buffalo. The articles of agreement for the fight were duly signed yesterday and the money is up, the pugilists being HATTIE LESLIE, a variety sotress, and ALICE LEARY, a professional club-

This will never do. It is bad enough to hear of " game chickens " in the prize ring without looking for "plucky hens." Either this LESLIE-LEARY mill ought to be stopped or a clubbing committee of citizens ought to be on the lookout to administer a sound beating to every male ruffian who attends

The FASSETT Investigation has taken a new turn. It is now shown that the "deal" law of 1886 was a political job concected by HAMmerow Fran, jr., Juner Husten and some of the Aqueduct contractors; that one Aqueduct Commissioner borrowed $15,000 from a sub-contractor; that two of the investigating Senators, FASSETT and HENDRICKS, who voted for the "deal" law, made the first grab for patronage under it; and, above all, that Tom PLATT announced to Aqueduct Commissioner Down his intention of getting an interest in the Aqueduct contracts. Let the

The sad accident by which Mrs. Jour J. LEVY, of No. 21 West Fiftieth street, was instantly killed yesterday on West Twentythird street, ought to be thoroughly investigated. It is said that the driver was not to blame. But the accident is a new argument against the bobtail car. Perhaps the driver had too much to do looking after the passengers to enable him to see that a lady was crossing the street just in front of his horses.

Senator Sherman vesterday offered a resolution directing the Finance Committee to report a law to kill Trusts. Good for Senator SHERMAN. He has done right, although there is a rumor that if he had not been defeated by Harrison for the nomination be would not have tried to impair the confidence of Trust Monopolies in the Republican party.

Supt. MURRAY may be trusted to sift to the bottom the charges of blackmail made by Saloonkeeper MEYER against Policeman MILLER. At yesterday's examination MEYER reversed nearly all his previous sworn statements, and MILLER was discharged by Justice Gorman. Now, let us see if a serious charge will not lie against MEYER,

Chief ARTHUR, of the Brotherhood of Engineers, declares that the organization reso utely frowns down all acts not strictly within the law, and that if any indisprest member of the Brotherhood breaks the law he must pay the penalty. The people have entire confidence in the truth of what Chief

The Mayor's eagerness to remedy all evils and to do his whole duty has made his official life a busy one. Everybody who has real or fancied grievance writes to the Mayor, so that the Post-Office employees and the executive clerks find their positions no

The Legislature happily killed the scandalous job of two new "wing" buildings in City Hall Park. But Corporation Counsel BERRYAN decides that the law requiring the erection of a new municipal building, near the Park but not in it, is mandatory and that must be obeyed.

The Republicans meet in State Convention at Saratogs on Aug. 28th, and WARNER MILLER is their man for Governor. Well. the Democrats will have to do some work in the State, for the great woodpulper is not a candidate to be despised.

Ex-Speaker RANDALL's illness seems to be serious enough, although it is said that the reports are exaggerated. It is scarcely probable, however, that his health will permit him to take an active part in the campaign.

The good news from the sick-bed of the gallant Sheridan will cause rejoicing throughout the land. May the glad tidings go on growing better and better until the brave soldier's health is fully restored.

ON MARKET STALLS.

Weakfish, 8 cents a pound, Muskmelons, 10 to 50 cents. Blackfish, 10 cents a pound. Watermelons, 25 to 50 cents. Oranges, 60 to 75 cents a dozen. Balmon trout, 15 cents a pound. Raspberries, 7 to 10 cents a third. Curranta, 10 to 18 cents a pound. Long Island cucumbers, 5 cents each. Blackberries, 13 cents; best, 20 cents. Plums, 20 cents a dozen; best, 40 cents. Best American cheese, 14 cents a pound, Asparagus—best, 25 cents; fair, 15 centa. Pineapples-large, 50 cents: small, 15 cents. Bartiett pears, 60 cents a dosen; best, 75 cents. Whortleberries, 18 cents a bex; choice, 15 cents North Carolina peaches $1 a dozen; California, White oxhearts, 20 cents a pound; black cherries

HUDSON COUNTY'S FINEST.

Officer Chris Brenne has frequently been compil mented for his bravery. No one disputes Sergt. Archicald's claim to th title of " handsomest man on the force." Detective McNaily, of the Third, has risen from the ranks and fills an important position.

Mounted Officer Harms rides an animal which once trotted in 2.47. Harms is proud of the horse. Chief Murphy has returned from Gettysburg, and pronounces the trip one of the mest pleasant of his Detective Gus Holtie is a second Pinkerton. H never falls when on a case and has attained any amount of local fame. Health Officer Egan has a nose cultivated to high degree. Its powers causes trouble to dozen Joe Tyson, of the Fifth, was a member of a minstrel troupe years ago, and the boys never tire of his stories of " Auld Lang Syne." Officer Miller, whose beat is the Central Railroad Depot, is a great favorite among the railroad men. They present him with something or other every

Fourth of July Incident. [From Fenne Stylings.]
A father had been making an earnest effors to duce his son to quit firing off an old pistol. "Johnny, I am tired of the noise you make."

'Yee, and I am tired of the noise you make trying to stop the noise I make." Bang!

other day.

A Fine Protession.

(From Pime.)
Mr. Crupper (to his jockey)—How did it happen, Muckins ? You are a sixteenth of an ounce over weight!
Mucatus—I knowed I'd git in a sarape somehow.

the fight.

In my researches for words constituted of the letters of THE EVENING WORLD, it occurred to me to manufacture a single pro-nounceable word containing the entire tif-teen letters composing the name of your paper. I have done so, and here it is:

DWINNTHEREGLOVE. Let some other contestant try his or her hand at the manufacture of another such comprehensive word. A. Wilfond Hall.

A Word of Encouragement.

To Word-Building Editor Evening World:

I thank you for the kindliness which prompted you to give to the people such an instructive and interesting study, unheeding the trouble in store for yourself. Your efforts will not be wasted, however, as they will send the name and fame of The Evening World far and wide. Laura Garrick. 461 De Kalb avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

A Beautifully Arrayed List.

To Word-Building Editor Eveniss World:

I beg to respectfully submit herewith my list of — words in the word-building contest. I have aimed to be as comprehensive and correct as possible. Whatever labor the contest may have caused me has repaid me a hundred fold in the information and benefit I have derived thereby, and in whatever it would readers I return to behalf of your juvenile readers I return to you many thanks and my kindest wishes for your generous, enterprising and instructive offer.

Among your many boy readers and contest ants I beg to respectfully subscribe myself, COITE K. WOODBUFF, age fifteen. Asbury Park, N. J., July 9.

Pears for Webster. To Word-Building Editor Econing World:
Inclosed please find my list of words for enrollment in the word-building contest. I have found fit a profitable amusement, but fear I have made Webster very tired.

W. C. Berton. W. C. BERTON. 82 Third avenue, Newark, N. J., July 9.

A Much Wiser Little Girl. Building Editor Evening World : sed you will find a list of words over Inclosed you will find a list of words ove which I have puzzled a great deal, but I as sure you I am much wiser since I underfool the task. Should I be the successful one o the thousands who are competing for the prize. I should feel both proud and happy. am thirteen years of age.

Bindle Stean, 84 West Sixty-first street.

From a Thirteen-Year-Old Girl, To Word-Building Editor Evening World: I wish to be one of the contestants and I wish to be one of the contestants and offer the inclosed list, containing — words. I am thirteen years old but have looked up most of the words myself. My father has helped me some on the copying.

MARY E. BUSHNELL. 515 Grove street, Jersey City.

Many Pleasant Evenings.

To Word-Building Editor Evening World: Inclosed is my list. I have tried hard have no hopes of earning the prize, but like to be one of the first. I am sixteen years of age, and am employed by R. G. Dun's Mercantile Agency. I have spent many pleasant evenings working at this task.

23 George street, New Haven, Conn. 19

Brief, but to the Point. To Word-Suilding Editor Evening World:
Here goes for the engle. Inclosed, my list
MRS. R. B. HUNGERFORD, 476 West Thirty-fourth street, city. Utilized His Vacation.

To Word Building Editor Evening World:
I have just had my vacation, part of which time I devoted to your word-building contest, and inclose results, which I trust will meet with your approval.

Hoping that although almost last I am no

J. FORSYTHE, JR., 80 West Washington place.

Good for the Invalid.

Inclosed please find a list of words taken from letters contained in The Evening World. A cousin of mine from Chicago broke his right arm while climbing a tree, and now, as he is not able to write, he picks out the words and I copy them for him. The doctor said that it was a good thing for him to do a sit kent him how. to do, as it kept him busy. I sent you a list of words myself, but although he doesn't know it he is away ahead of me. So you see this is a case of Chicago against New York.

CHAS. H. YOUNG.

Care of H. Y. Murkiand, 1676 Ninth avenue,

Hopes to See the Eagle Fly. Hopes to see the Eagle Fly.

To Word Suilding Editor Evening World;
Inclosed please find my list of words composed from the letters in The Evening World. I think it a very good puzzle. I have several words in my list which I had never heard of until I looked over the dictionary. I have worked several hours at it, and hope to see the double eagle flying to ADDIE F. BOYCE,
Larchmont Manor, Westchester County,

Thinks the Contest Too Short.

You will find inclosed my list of words. am sorry that the competition closes so soon.
You should get up something that would last all through vacation. This scheme has afforded excellent amusement, but it did not last long enough.
Frank Figir. last long enough. FRANK FICIE, 316 Adams street, Brooklyn.

After the Yellow Bird.

To Word-Building Editor Evening World!

Inclosed you will find my contribution to the great scramble for that yellow bird. There are accres of words in it which I don't like, but as Webster and Worcester stand aponsors for them I suppose they must be legitimate.

Parance For. After the Yellow Bird. imate. PATRICE FOY, 192 Mulberry street, New York City.

The Overflowing Mail-Bag.

Other lists received from W. Walter Willis, 500 Clinton ave., Brooklyn; E. M. Finley, 2510 8th ave.; Grace E. Knapp, 69 E. 123d st.; August Ronse, 208 E. 21st st.; Gay Millins, 26 E. 74th st.; Maggie Hoyt, 319 W. 26th st.; Mrs. M. E. S., Louise B. Murphy, Bordentown, N. J.; Frank K. Browne, 808 E. 122d st.; J. J. Williams, 235 E. 105th st.; G. H. Jackson, 1187 Bedford ave., Brooklyn; K. Newell, 261 Broadway; Mrs. F. L. H., 39 W. 20th st.; J. Thomas, 165 E. 49th st.; Alexander Zinker, 206 W. 43d st.; Jennie L. Frice, 669 6th ave.; Alfred K. Moe, 327½ 4th st., Jersey City; Walter E. Rhodos, 350 W. 55th st.; Jacob Gotthelf, 1331 2d ave.; G. A. Dobbs, Ridgewood, Bergen County, N. J.: Anna Chapman, 1766 3d ave.; H. W. Robinson, 91 Franklin st.; H. P. David, 110 W. 79th st.; Susie M. Gilbert, Montrose ave., Malden, Mass.; Carrie Loeb, 103 E. 116th st.; Mary De Witt, 1021 Church st., Lynchburg, Va.; A. Berman, 82 E. 11th st.; J. R. Perrin, Bridgeport, Conn.; Stanley St. John, Towners, Putnam County, N. Y.; Blanche Dixon, 223 E. 79th st.; F. R. Pickardt, Bethlehem, Pa.; Nannie Hoyt, 525 W. 29th st.; Mrs. L. L. Hayman, 107 E. 121st st.; Mamie Kirkham, 420 Van Buren st., Brook-The Overflowing Mail-Bag.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, J.

lyn: Mary Hertz, 236 6th st.; Henry Eurlich, 304 E. 3d st.; L. W. Palmer, 634 Myrtle ave., Brooklyn; Bigmund Beek, 328 E. 80th st.; Martha E. Dailey, 502 W. 82d st.; Frank L. Ward, 205 8th st.; Mrs. N. R. Brady, 625 W. 29th st.; W. G. French, 201 E. 71st st.; Maggles O. Munday, 45 86th st., Bouth Brooklyn; P. W. Orris, 191 Adams st., Brooklyn; Mont Douglas, 369 Degraw st.; O. W. Hooper, Sutton ave., near Schenck, Brooklyn; William O'Beirne, 22834 3d st., Jersey City; A. H. Eastmond, 828 Lafayette ave., Brooklyn; Margaret Comley, Port Washington, L. I.; Sigmund Susman, 1432 3d ave.; M. E. Mulligan, 99 Division st.; George I. Finlay, 134 Flatbush ave., Brooklyn; Louis Allen, 238 Adams st., Brooklyn; May Keefe, 74 Johnson st., Brooklyn; May Keefe, 74 Johnson st., Brooklyn; May Keefe, 74 Johnson st., Brooklyn; M. A., 223 E. 12th st.; Anna L. Moore, 43 W. 43d st.; Charles F. Goldman, Peekskill, N. Y.; Albert W. Lindsay, 317 State st.; Edna Henry, 406 Pleasant ave.; E. Alexander, 77 Divison st., James Fletcher, 446 Lexington ave.; Ida Klitz, 215 W. 60th st.; P. O. Heimer, 624 E. 180th st.; J. W. Macrae, 121 E. 18th st.; F. O. Case, 128 E. 123d st.; F. W. White, Selkirk, N. Y.; E. T. Civils, 317 W. 39th st.; Lottie A. Kingsland, Roselle, N. J.; P. J. Warrin, 656 Wythe ave., Brooklyn; Edith M. Dickinson, Trenton, N. J.; Howard Pooton, 59 Park place, Brooklyn; Lillias B. Kendall, 2419 2d ave.; Minnie E. Duncan, 332 10th st., Brooklyn; Max Scher, 165 E. 105th st.; Alice F. Paterson, 2148 7th ave.; Ward Hillman, Fordham ave.; R. J. Thompson, Hobuken; R. Morrison, 106 E. 71st st.; C. H. Seeger, 199 52d st., Brooklyn; Steiphen H. Keating, 70 Ludlow st.; E. Byrnes, 227 E. 30th st.; James Mannheim, 268 East Broadway; Willie Wildwave, 245 Ave. B; Annie Weije, 1360 Railroad ave.; Wm. Armstrong, 341 W. 28th st.; Frank Ritchie, 75 W. 98th st.; Bertha Gaskell, Brooklyn; C. W. Turner, Phill ps. 1360 Railroad ave.; Wm. Armstrong, 341 W. 28th st.; Frank Ritchie, 75 W. 98th st.; Bertha Gaskell, Brooklyn; C. W. T

ARTISTS OUT OF TOWN.

J. H. Dolph has gone to Bellport, L. L. J. J. Peoli has cone to Sandy Rill, N. V.

Arthur Parton is at Baldwin Place, Yonkers. A. H. Wyant is at Arkville, Delaware County H. W. Robbins is at Sensbury, Hartford County,

W. F. Mott has gone to Europe to study a recreate. Jervis McIntee has gone up the Hudson to Ren dout, N. Y.

Miss Maria J. C. & Becket is delighted with East Gloucester, Mass. Kruseman van Eiten has gone to Holland to Henry Ferguson is observing the way the Quogue, L. I., billows come in. Several of the Tenth street Studio Building ar tists have not yet packed for the country. Wm. Chase, Lafarge, Gay, Castlear and Fueschel are among these late stayers in town.

THROUGH AN IRON SCREEN.

The St. Louis Murderer Holds His Inter view with Mother and Sister.

Annie Brooks, the pretty sister of the co demned murderer of C. Arthur Preller, at St. Louis, arose from a sick-bed in order not to miss her daily visit to her unfortunate brother.

Brooks, or Maxwell, has not yet lost his hope that Gov. Morehouse will interfere before Friday to save his neck from the hangman's noose. Indeed, that hope seems to man's noose. Indeed, that hope seems to have been much strengthened by the coming of the mother and sister from England.

Although these devoted women visit the prisoner at least once daily, they have not yet been admitted to his actual presence. That would be a violation of the jail rules. A strong iron screen has always separated them from the condemned one, and through this screen all the messages of love and comfort have passed. Long interviews are allowed to the little group of three, and the officers leave them uninterrupted and unembarrassed by the presence of strangers. barrassed by the presence of strangers.

Mrs. Brooks and her daughter have fallen into most friendly hands, and but for the sorrowful nature of the errand which brought them to America it must be that they would receive most grateful impressions of the hos-pitality and cordiality of the people this side of the water.

But now the hours fly and the time narrows with terrible certainty between these mo-says its penalty must be paid, even to a life for a life.

Woman of the House (to Tramp)-I can't give you nothin' hot, 'cept perhaps the weather, but I kin give you 'most anythin' you want cold. Tramp (a tear of gratitude trickling down his wan cheek)—Thanks, madam; I think I'll take a

Too Much for His System. [From Time.]
 What particular form has the little fellow's illness assumed, my dear madam?" inquired the physician, as he looked at the dog's tongue and felt of his pulse.

"General lassitude and depression, doctor," re"General lassitude and depression, doctor," re"General lassitude and depression, doctor," repited the anxious lady. "We came from Tuxedo yesterday, and he was compelled to travel with the luggage. I fear the poor little darling is suffering from shock."

Getting the Drop. [From the Wasp.] A frenzied Chicago lover had just declared his "Throw up your hands, George," said the girl, displaying a revolver.

.. Then she said " No," and escaped with her life. See had the "drop."

Auxious to Do Right. [Frem Time.]
"Well, there's the pic," said the woman to the tramp. If you are as hungry as you say you are why don't you sat it? What are you thinking of?"

"Madam," he replied, thoughtfully, 'I have an aged mother in the poor-house, and I'm her only nope. I was thinking if I ought to take any chances."

Brown-There goes my friend Vacuum. He has the clearest head of any man I know.

Guinn—He has, indeed. There is absolutely nothing in it.

Truth in Metaphor. [From Nas.]
Al-Charite cave he is buffetting his way through

WHERE IS JOSIE SHEPHARD?

THE JUVENILE ASYLUM RECORDS HAVE NOT THE PLACE.

The Transcript Furnished "The Evenin World" by the Asylum People Says That the Asylum Officers Don't Knor Where He Is-Evidence Being Prepared at the Next Meeting.

President Kingsley, of the Juvenile Asylum, directed Supt. E. D. Carpenter yesterday to examine the record books of the institution and to furnish THE EVENING World with a transcript of the records in the case of Josie Shephard. This was done last evening, but the report furnished to THE EVENING WORLD states only the facts regarding the commitment and discharge of Josie Shephard which have already made him public, and adds that his present whereabouts are unknown, because Mr. Wright, the appointing agent in Bloomington, Ill. has not yet made his report in the case.

The evidence which will be submitted to the Indenturing Committee of the New York Juvenile Asylum at its special meeting next Monday evening is being prepared by THE EVENING WORLD and its counsel, De Lancev Nicoll. The case will be presented in its strongest light, and morally as well as legally the committee will be bound to give it a fair and impartial hearing.

Sworn statements from Mrs. Elizabeth Shephard, the boy's grandmother, and her sons, showing the circumstances under which Josia was committed to the institu-

Shephard, the boy's grandmother, and her sons, showing the circumstances under which Josie w..s committed to the institution, and the misunderstanding under which she was laboring as to her ability to remove the child from the asylum, and the failure to give her the required notice, as well as Mr. Andrew Grant's affidavit that he can provide for the child and will adopt it and bring it up in his own family have been obtained, and will be presented to the committee with other evidence which was wanting at the time the evidence which was wanting at the time the previous application was made for the re-turn of the boy and the Board refused to take action.

Considerable surprise has been evpressed by many members of the Board that this in-formation was not furnished to them at the time the boy was sent away, and, according to their own statements, it is customary for to their own statements, it is customary for the asylum authorities to waive their legal right to dispose of a child in the customary way by sending it to the West, whenever any relative or friend appears who will become responsible for the support of such a child, and whom the committee believes will bring it up properly and not allow it to become a charge on the county.

Under these circumstances they cannot consistently refuse to reconsider the case.

consistently refuse to reconsider the case, and give a decision favorable to the relatives and friends of Josie Shephard.

ALONG THE BOWERY.

As I stroll up the big, broad thoroughfare which begins at Chatham Square, noisy with the rattle of elevated trains, bright with the glare of electric lights and crowded with throngs of buyers and sellers, I think of the friends who were to be found there years and years ago, when the old Bowery presented a very different appearance.

Those were great days. Old Pete Asten "kept store" at the corner of Hester for forty-nine and a half years to a day. It was an old-fashioned barroom in a two-story wooden house, and Pete and his wife and boy lived over the store. Old Pete quit keeping house in 1876 and went up to One Hundred and Thirtieth street to live. He died there a year ago last winter. His place didn't make much of a show, but his boy gets the interest on $400,000 since his father died and lives in style

The London and Liverpool Clothing Company is where Pete's sign used to hang out, but they've got a big brick building on the spot where Pete's hotel used to stand.

Old Sport and I dropped down to see ex-Warden Walsh at his place on Centre street, and we got to talking about the Dead Rabbits riot of '57.

The Warden says the ruction was started by the change which occurred the 8d of July from the old municipal police system to the metropolitan syshe hands of the city and had made a metropolitan police district of New York, Kings, Queens, Richmond and Westchester Counties, with Warden Pilsoury as the first Superintendent of Police. James W. Bowers and ex-Judge Joseph Bosworth were two of the commissioners under the new law.

The Sixth Ward boys were against any change, and they yowed they wouldn't have anything to do with the new-fangled thing. There was trouble all over town, but more around the Bowery than anywhere else.

Says the Warden: "Jim Dunphy's hand-ball sourt was at 21 Mulberry street. Hand ball in those days took the place of the baseball of to-day. We met at Dunphy's, in the bend, to form a piculo club. We were talking about a name when a fire alarm sounded. Somebody raised his band and says 'Hush!' We stood still, listening, when in came that dead rabbit through the window. I says: *That settles it boys. There's your name. It has been thrown into the window at you. We are all Dead Rabbits.'"

Old John Nugent, who has loved the Bowery for nore than forty years, chips in here and says "And do you remember that when the Sev-enth Regiment marched over to Chatham square to stop the fight one of the boys ran up to the Colonel and told him the mob had set up an infernal machine in the middle of the square and it would go off and blow the militiamen to smithereens if they went near it? The Colonel could see a barrel there sure enough with the smoke curling out of it. He was scared and helted his men. But after a few minutes the boys in their hiding places began to 'ha! ha!' at him, and one of his men went up and boidly kicked the barrel over. "We had a bunch of burning brown paper under it."

All of which was remembered by the

BOWERY BOY. A Compromise Which Was Not Ratified. [From the Albany Journal.]

First Boy (to companion across the street)-Say, limmy, come over on dis side an' play. Second Boy-Dassent. De ole man sez if I go over dere again he'il lick me. You come over

"I dassent neither. My ole man sez he'll break "I dassent Bettler. My ole man act us a break my back if I don't stay over on dis side."
"I lwish i was as big as me brudder Dan; I'd lam de face offen my old man."
"I don't. Me mudder gives my ole man ail be can stand now. She trun him down cellar last hight."
"My mudder is dead. Say, ye got a ball ?"
"You bet. an'it's a lulu."

"You bet, an' it's a lulu."
"Let's bave a game of ketch." "All right."
They do, and the result is a broken window in each house; also a broken spirit in each boy when their respective dads return.

A Great Difference. Sm)th—How are you, Jones? Jones-Excuse me, I don't know you. Smith-You know me when you borrowed that Jones-Well, I don't want to borrow anything

> Love and Optica. [From Time.] A lover's always partly blind. This truth admits no doubt, Since always for the girl he loves He's seeping an eye out.

AFTER SOME BREWERS.

from taking any active part in the boy cott on the pool brewers, but the Brooklyn Central Labor Union, being practically in their con-trol, their brethren in this city are bound to id them in the movement to crush out those who have so strongly opposed them. The whole matter will probably be discussed and acted upon next Sunday in this city and Brooklyn.

PROGRESSIVE MUSICIANS.

The Miscellaneous Section Hears How They

Crowded Out the Protectives,

Delegate William D. Luke, of the Our Own

Association of Carpet Workers, occupied the chair at the meeting of the Miscellaneous

Section last night in Central Labor Union

Delegates were received from the West

Coopers' Union No. 2 reported that some of its members had had trouble in Walsh's shop at 113 Wall street and had settled it. Mr. Walsh caused the arrest of three union men for alleged conspiracy in influencing his em-ployees. The case was put into the hand of the Law Committee of the Central Labor

Notes of Labor.

The Furniture-Workers' Section meets to-night.

Of the 19,000 carpet-workers at Philadelphia fully

The Barbers' Union announces its annual gather-ing for recreation at Phosnix Park on Sunday, Sept. 23.

Great preparations are being made for the piculo and summer-night's festival of the Boatmen's Inter-national Union, which will be held at Phoenix Park

Charters have been granted to new unions of cigar-maxers at Wilmington, Del., and Warsaw, Ind., by the Executive Board of the Cigar-Makers' International Union.

Over $5,000 was sent by local unions of the Cigar-Makers' International Union in aid of the men and women who went on strike last winter from four of the largest factories in this city.

Nearly 300 employees have been discharged from the Baitimore and Ohio Railroad shops at Baiti-more within the past two weeks on account of the recent sale of the sleeping-car system to the Pul-

The Grand League of Green Glassblowers, East-ern Division, now in seasion at 98 Forsyth street, declines to join District Assembly No. 149, Knights of Labor, as a condition of harmonious action. The last-mentioned body is in session at Massillon, O., and had telegraphed that union could effected only by the League joining the order.

Joy and Serrow Combined.

in the first first term.

Acquaintance-Why, Brown, why on earth ar you wearing such a knot of crape--and I'll be hanged! all those flags, tob—ch?

Heartbroken Brown—Painting the town, old boy; mother-in-law's dead."

News Summary.

Congressman Randall is seriously ill at Washing

Troops have been sent to quell an insurrection is

A French warship shells the native villages of An earthquake shakes up the people of Maryland

There is talk of an ice trust among the Hudson River dealers.

Kelly, the $10,000 beauty of the Boston nine, i fined $25 for ball habits.

A wesithy Nebraska farmer, with a large family, dopes with a pretty school teacher.

Queen Natalie of Servia has no intention of giving up the Crown Prince to King Milan.

The German doctors of the late Emperor make a combined assault upon Sir More: I Mackenzie.

Daring burglars rob Inspector Byrnes's house a ong Branch while he is ableep in an adjoining

Two men are crushed to death and three danger-

Pa., quarry.

The bodies of a man and woman with their throats cut and their feet iled together are found in the river near Louisville, Ky.

Weak and Weary

Describes the condition of many people debilitated b

that tired feeling, to purify and quicken the aluggian blood, and restore the lost appetite. If you need a good medicine be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My appetite was poor, I could not sleep, had head ache a great deal, pains in my back, my bowels did no move regularly. Hood's Baraaparilla in a short time did me so much good that I feel like a new man. My pains and aches are relieved, my appetite improved." GEORGE F. JACKSON, ROXDERY Station, Conn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

100 DOSES ONE DOLLAR

France is going to make an effort to improve her man Company.

Association of Silk Ribbon Weavers.

Brewervmen's Union.

A Breeklyn Central Labor Committee Pro poses a Beer Beycott-

HOW IT HAS QUIETLY SPRUNG INTO A committee of the Brooklyn Central Labor BEAUTY AND PROSPERITY. Union has conferred with leading Knights of Labor in this city with a view towards obtaining the latter's support in boycotting the Has Its bhare of the City's Churches, Is leading pool brewers who have vigorously Blessed with a Healthy Air and Sur-roundings, and Seems to Its Residents opposed organized labor and defeated the

All that It Should Be-Some Neighbor hood Gossip. The Brooklyn committee proposed that the beer of half dozen of the big brewers be One of the most prosperous and prettiest residence sections of the City of Churches is composed of those portions of the Twenty. first and Twenty-third wards of Brooklyn

ONE PIECE OF BROOKLYN

"severely let alone," and the New York Knights gave them to understand that they would consider the matter favorably. It was also proposed that a leading pool brewer in each State be selected for a similar purpose, and the boycott placed on all those designed by the Knights all over the United States. There is thus every probability that a big and effective boycott will be put on some of the boss brewers. inclosed between the boundaries of Nostrand and Sumner avenues, Myrtle avenue and Halsey street. the boss brewers.

The Knights have heretofore refrained

Twenty years ago this section was composed of open fields, but the demands of a growing population soon had it dotted with houses. It was not, however, until the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad cut it in two, through Lexington avenue, that the boom commenced, and this particular section of East Brooklyn has since been a regular bonanza for real-estate dealers and builders.

Joseph P. Puels, of 311 Nostrand avenue, is the real-estate king of this section, owning and controlling something less than half the property in the Twenty-third Ward.

Patrick Concannon is another extensive builder and real-estate owner in this section. He has recently built up both sides of Van Buren street, between Throop and Sumner avenues. Every one of the houses which he has erected has been purchased with avidity, except the one he reserves for his own use. commenced, and this particular section of except the one he reserves for his own use.

John F. Ryan has done much towards building up this neighborhood with handsome brown-stone houses in Greene avenue. Young Brothers and T. W. Swimm also have roung Brothers and T. W. Swimm also have erected many handsome residences here.

The building of the Union Elevated Road through Myrtle avenue has rendered stores in this section a necessity, and F. R. Boerum is filling the want by erecting a block of them between Nostrand and Marcy avenues.

This particular portion has its fair share of the churches of a city noted for its religious edifices. edifices.

There are Father Patrick Creighton's church, Our Lady of Victory, at Throop avenue and Halsey street, and Father Sheehy's Church of St. Ambrose, at DeKalb avenue, and Kosciusko street. The Methodists are twice represented: A wealthy congregation at Nostrand avenue and Quincy street, and another on Green avenue, near Tomprine the Law Committee of the Central Labor Union.

A delegate from Progressive Musical Union No. 1 reported that a certain rifle association had held a picuic at Phænix Park and engaged musicians from the Protective Musical Union, who advertised themselves as members of the "P. M. U. No. 1." the initials being the same as the Progressive Union, The Progressives sent twelve of their members to the park, and the rifle association. another on Greene avenue, near Tompkins arenue.

Then there are Rev. E. P. Ingersoll's Purlan Congregation Church at Marcy and Lafayette avenues, and the East Congregational Church at Kosciusko and Tompkins avenues, bers to the park, and the rifle association was forced to employ them and send the Pro-tective Union men away. The Organization Committee of the section was announced to meet Friday evening at 145 Eighth street to organize the agents of the Metropolitan Insurance Company.

which has had for its pastors the preacher-tragedian, George C. Miln and the Rev. Con-gressman J. Hyatt Smith. In the Neighborhood. Gus Winnick, the barber, at 848 Nostrand avenue, is one of the old residents of this new section, and, like all knights of the razor, is accounted the gossip of the neighborhood, although his gossip harms nobody. Dr. Catle laments that he has located in such a ealthful neighborhood. There's no sickness, and what's a doctor to do under such circumstances ? M. A. Malone, Inspector of Plumbing under exdayor Low, smiles when he hears the health of the neighborhood spoken of, and says: "I did it with my little plumbing."

The Park Commissioners have at last discovered hat there is such a spot as Tompkins Park, and that it is capable of improvement.

Charity Commissioner Thomas W. Hynes, of 508 Willoughby avenue, says this is the only section of opinion published, as the rest of the town might crowd in and make living uncomfortable. The wealth and fashion is moving up from Myrtle

The postmen are rejoicing over the prospective sppointment of 250 additional carriers for the city service, and are anxiously waiting for the time when the eight-hour rule will be put in force.

Robert P. Davis's friends say he will get that grand marshalship, and Matthew Barr's and J. F. Sullivan's backers are sanguine that the man will the lovely blonds inustable will not wear the sash. avenue toward Hancock and Halsey streets. Summering at Gotham's Hotels Rear Admiral William E. Le Roy, U. S. N., is a guest at the Victoria. Ex-Senator Taeodore M. Pomeroy, of Auburn, N. Y., is at the Windsor Hotel.

W. P. Jenkins, of Chicago, and R. L. Eames, of Nashville, Tenn., are at the Sturtevant House. Hotel Bartholdi arrivals include C. Sullivan, of dichmond, and A. W. Jackman, of Nyack, N. Y. Walter J. Barr, of Toronto, and O. E. Place, of Providence, R. L. are registered at the Astor effected only by the League joining the order.

Preparations for the great demonstration on Labor Day, Sept. 5, continue. David J. Naughton, delegate of the Equality Association of Dry-Goods Sales Men and Women, and other labor leaders, are preparing matter for the Labor Day, a journal containing the programme of the parade and festivities. One hundred thousand copies will be often away. Dr. F. M. Hillyer, of Washington, and Louis Walker, of Meadville, Pa., are among the late ar-rivals at the Albemarle.

At the St. James are William P. Tyler, of Boston, Thomas Janney, of Baltimore, and J. Y. Potts, of Washington. The Gilsey House register shows the names of ex-Congressman Jas. D. Brady, of Virginis, and F. B. Weeks and family, of Texas.

Guy C. Noble, of the Central Vermont Railroad, A. M. Gibson, of Washington, and George H. Ed-brooke, of Chicago, are registered at the Hotel Branswick. At the Fifth Avenue Hotel are Col. W. W. Dudley, of Indiana; J. Hale Sypher, of Louisiana; Joseph M. Carey, of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Col. William E. Tanner, of Richmond, Vs.

Licut. E. C. Carter, U. S. A.; Rev. J.T. Downes, of Central New York, and Martin Cook, of Rochester, are guests of the Grand Hotel.

This morning's arrivals at the Hoffman House include ex-Gov. B. B. Pinchback, of New Orleans; Thos. B. Keogh, of North Carolins, and Jos. H. Bromley, the Philadelphia carpet manufactures.

CUT THIS OUT.

Why Spoil Your Summer by Missing "The Evening World?"

It Will Take But a Minute to Fill Out the Blank Below.

For the convenience of the readers of The Evening World" who are leaving the city for a vacation or who live out of town throughout the summer the following blank is prepared. If you desire to have "The Evening World" sent regularly to you in the country or by the seashore, write your address in the space reserved for it, state the number of months, one or more, for which the paper is desired, and the amount inclosed.

The subscription for "The Evening World" is thirty cents per month, which includes postage. Remittance may be made by postal note, express or United States money order or in stamps, as may be most convenient.

To the Cashier EVENING WORLD

Inclosed find cents in paymen for THE EVENING WORLD for

Have the paper forwarded to the fol-

***************************** ********************** *******

The above should be inclosed in an Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. envelope addressed to THE EVENING WORLD.